

Leilei Has Been frequently misbehaving and trying to bite people while working as a public relief pet! So now, his trainer is trying to correct his behavior. Before anything else, he had Leilei's limbs removed and sealed to prevent immediate regeneration.

His legs were also forcibly spread apart in order to expose his precious pet parts!

IT WILL LIKELY TAKE A WHILE, BUT THE TRAINER'S GOAL WAS TO MAKE LEILEI UNDERSTAND HIS ROLE AND, EVENTUALLY, BEG TO GO BACK TO HIS POST!

Well, Leilei, since you hate being used that much, I guess we will leave you alone for a while, hm?

Of course, just leaving you like this would be a waste,
you still need to be at least a bit entertaining~

This should help you keep making these cute little noises~

Oh, don't worry, I'll turn off your orgasm function so you don't need to complain about those nasty, painful and overstimulated orgasms anymore! And of course, no one will put anything in any of your holes, you did hate it a lot, right?

gah!

As of now, Leilei can't even complain, as his ability to speak was also being restricted via his magical collar.

He was LEFT THERE FOR a WHOLE MONTH.
Everyone was instructed to ignore His screams and NOT TOUCH Him under any circumstances.

Poor Leilei had grown used to having His orgasms unrestricted and people touching and playing with Him all day long, so just a single month of constant denial and feeling His empty holes ache was more than enough to break Him.

Suddenly He no longer hated being a public relief pet and would do anything to go back to how it was before.
Surely, He would not even think about biting anymore!!

However, pets that are naughty can't walk away with no punishment, this would set a really bad example for the others, after all.

Aww, you look so adorable like this~ Do you want to cum, Leilei? I'll even turn your speech back on again to let you answer~

Ye-es!! Please let Leilei cum!! Please, please, please!!
Leilei promises he won't bite anymore!!

Ah!

gah!

haaa...

Unfortunately for your, pet, you don't seem to keep your promises very well... However, I have a proposal for you~

I'll take something from you that you really love in exchange for letting you cum! I might even let you have it back IF you get an 100% approval rating next year! What do you think?

Please!! Yes, please let Leilei cum!!!

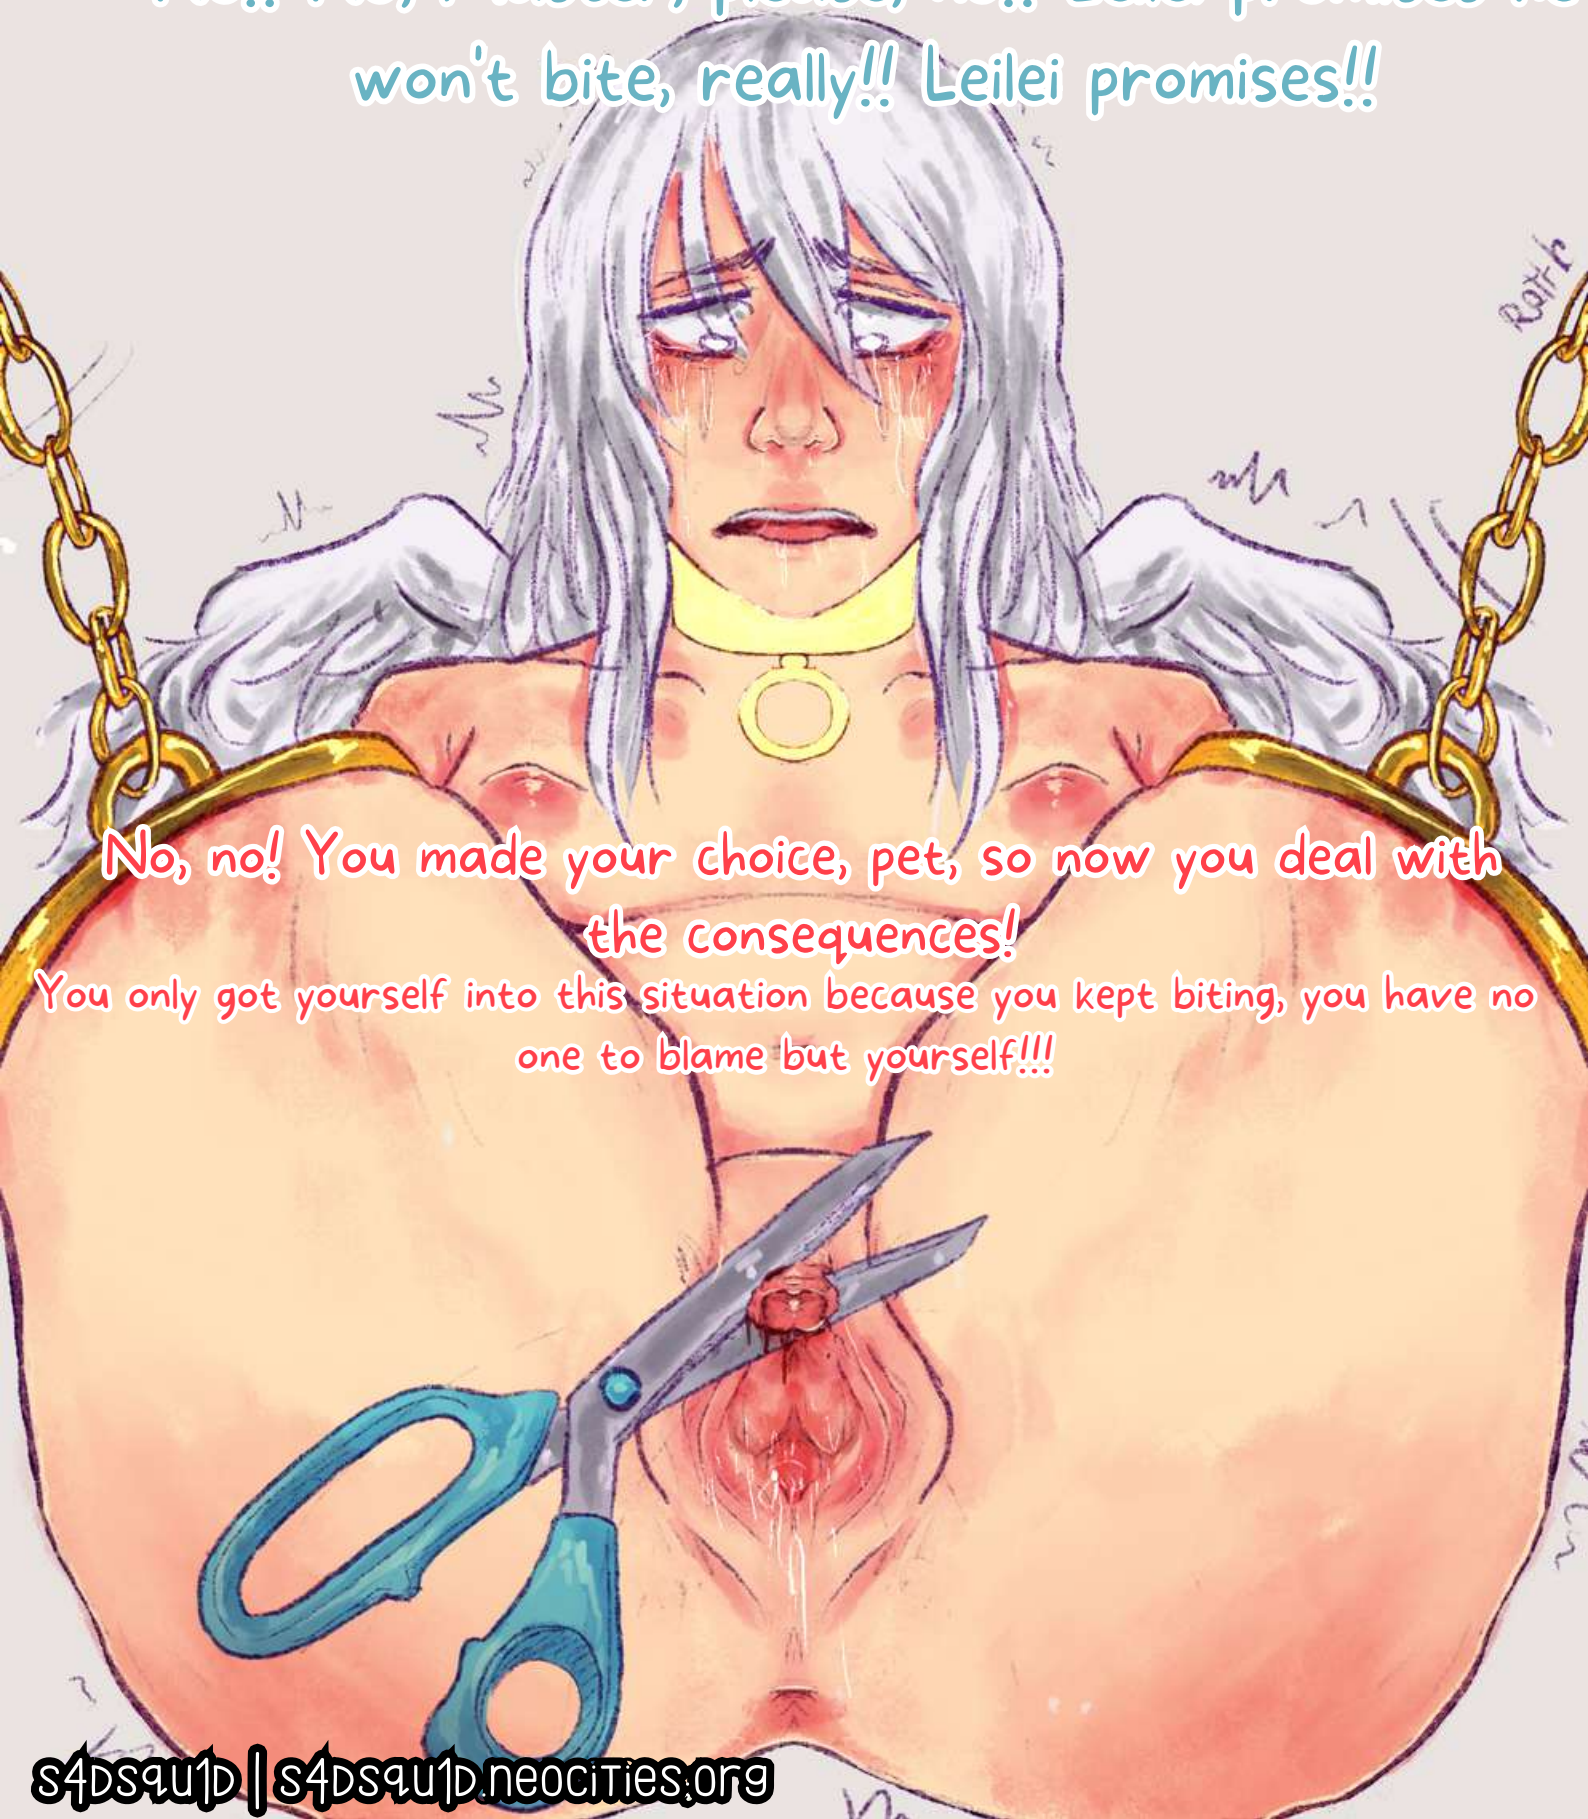

Good choice, pet <3

I hope you enjoyed cumming with your clit one last time! You'll have it back if you manage to hit 100% approval before your body will no longer to regenerate it!

You should probably know that no PRP ever reached this, oops

No!! No, Master, please, no!! Leilei promises he won't bite, really!! Leilei promises!!

No, no! You made your choice, pet, so now you deal with the consequences!

You only got yourself into this situation because you kept biting, you have no one to blame but yourself!!!

The maximum amount of time an angel's Limbs could be blocked off from regeneration and still keep it's capacity to come back is around 10 years. It was unlikely, bordering on impossible, for Leilei to get an 100% approval, much less in this relatively short amount of time. This was as good as permanent for him.

please...

no...

OF course, THE POOR THING WOULD LIKELY NOT GIVE UP HOPE AND TRY HIS BEST TO BE THE BEST PRP POSSIBLE!
IN THE END, THE SINGLE PUNISHMENT COMBINED WITH FUTILE HOPE WAS MORE EFFECTIVE THAN ANY TRAINING COULD HAVE EVER BEING!
